

ARMED FORCES STAFF COLLEGE
OFFICE OF THE COMMANDANT
NORFOLK, VIRGINIA

30 October 1957

Dear Mr. Dulles:

STATINTL

I should like to invite [redacted] a member of your organization, to talk to the Twenty-second Class of the Armed Forces Staff College on the subject, "International Communism". [redacted] presentation of this subject to the last class was an outstanding contribution to the course and I would be pleased to have him present his lecture again on 15 January 1958 at 1000 hours.

STATINTL

If you approve acceptance of this invitation, Lt.
Colonel Harold D. Woodruff, USAF, of the AFSC faculty will communicate directly with [redacted] concerning further details and arrangements for his presentation.

STATINTL

Sincerely,

18/
CHARLES WELLBORN, JR.
Vice Admiral, U. S. Navy
Commandant ;

Mr. Allen W. Dulles
Director, Central Intelligence Agency
